

Cork Bakery launches new gluten-free 'Family Sharing' range

Ireland's first artisan gluten-free bakery, Denise's Delicious Gluten-Free Bakery, is launching a new range of 'family sharing' treats. Founded in 2008, the bakery now employs a team of 13 at its base in Little Island, Co. Cork.

In response to demand for popular family 'free-from' treats, Denise and her team spent over a year developing their new Cranberry and Orange Loaf and an Oxford Lunch Cake. Specially chosen ingredients feature a number of Irish products, including free-range eggs from Clonarn Clover in Co. Cavan.

Products available from the major supermarkets, artisan food stores and www.delicious.ie.
